SINGER / SONGWRITER / DIGITAL CREATOR

BIOGRAPHY

Charlotte Blu, a rising star in the music industry, has been enchanting audiences with her soul-stirring vocals and deeply personal lyrics. Originating from Rock Island IL., Charlotte's musical journey began in the warm, welcoming environment of her local church, where she first discovered her love for singing and guitar.

Her defining moment came in 2019 with a notable appearance on NBC's "The Voice," a platform that propelled her to want to become a professional entertainer and helped establish her desire to become a formidable talent. Charlotte's music—an exquisite fusion of blues, soul, and pop—resonates with fans, drawn to her authentic sound and relatable storytelling.

2022 marked a significant milestone in her career with the release of "The Colors Of You," her debut EP. This collection not only highlighted her songwriting abilities but also showcased the depth and power of her vocal talent. The EP is a personal emotional journey reflecting her experiences as a girl becoming a young woman.

Currently, Charlotte is immersed in creating new material, collaborating with an array of artists to bring fresh and exciting sounds to her repertoire. Her dedication to her craft and willingness to experiment with different musical styles signifies her evolution as an artist.

Beyond the stage and studio, Charlotte is passionately involved in advocacy, particularly focusing on mental health awareness among women and young people. Through her platform, she aims to shed light on these crucial issues, using her voice and influence to make a positive impact in the community.

As she continues to grow as an artist and advocate, Charlotte Blu is more than a name; she's a rising star with a voice and vision poised to make a significant impact in the music world. Her talent, coupled with her passion and dedication, makes her an ideal candidate for collaboration and representation. Whether you're a booking agent, music producer, or brand manager, Charlotte Blu is a talent you won't want to miss!
